Arc Herkimer's Crosley Earns National Achievement Award

HERKIMER — Arc Herkimer's President/CEO Kevin Crosley was honored with an Outstanding Professional Achievement award from the National Council of Executives (NCE) of The Arc of the United States at a NCE awards luncheon at the annual National Convention on Thurs., November 2 in San Diego, CA.

The award recognizes NCE members who live by the core values of the The Arc by providing leadership resulting in outstanding achievement and a significant improvement in supports and services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. Recipients also have been recognized and valued by not only their peers, but also the communities they work in.

Crosley said, "I am humbled and deeply honored to receive this award on behalf of the 700 people with disabilities and nearly 400 incredible staff at Arc Herkimer. It is a true honor to be recognized by your peers in the industry and I couldn't be more proud of the outstanding supports and services we provide for our families in Herkimer County. We have now placed Arc Herkimer on the national map and should be very proud of that accomplishment. I happily share this award with all of the individuals associated with our great organization."

Jon Meyers, executive director, The Arc of Arizona and chair, 2017 NCE Awards Committee, said, "Kevin Crosley's vision and leadership transformed Arc Herkimer into a thriving, dynamic social and economic force in the Mohawk Valley, and strengthened the organization's commitment to provide the highest quality of life and opportunity for personal growth to residents with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Kevin, along with the team at Arc Herkimer, is truly an example to be followed by others in this field."

The National Council of Executives is a dynamic peer membership organization of leaders from The Arc's network of nearly 700 chapters. NCE creates opportunities for exchanging ideas, provides training essential in professional development, and offers support and mentoring for successful leadership. Members work collaboratively to better serve their chapters and their constituents.

Arc Herkimer is a member chapter with a mission of empowering people with disabilities and enriching lives throughout the community. For more information, call (315) 574-7000 or visit www.archerkimer.org.
