Musicians Sought for Arc Herkimer Spirituality Concert

Arc Herkimer's Spirituality Committee is inviting groups or individual musicians and singers, who express their faith through music, to participate in the tenth annual "Celebration of the Spirit" concert.

This year's community event, free and open to the public, will be held Saturday, August 18, from Noon to 5 p.m. at Arc Park, a park for people of all abilities to enjoy recreation, located at 420 E. German Street in Herkimer, NY. Craft and food vendors are also invited to join in the event.

According to Tammy Helmer-Bergen, Arc Herkimer Spirituality coordinator, the musical talent can be choirs, bands, instrumentalists, soloists, etc. Anyone can contribute music that has a spiritual message. This year's headliners are The Mark Bolos Band and FLAME, the band. FLAME members are from Lexington (Montgomery ARC) and the group is made up of people with developmental and physical disabilities. They have traveled the world with their goal to highlight abilities, not disabilities and to inspire people through their music.

Musicians interested in contributing their talent and vendors should contact Helmer-Bergen by calling (315) 574-7850 or emailing tbergen@archerkimer.org by Thursday, June 28. Electricity can only be provided for musicians.

Arc Herkimer's Spirituality Committee works to provide opportunities for participation for persons with disabilities, along with their families, in meaningful spiritual activities to allow everyone to come together to celebrate as a community.

Arc Herkimer's mission is empowering people with disabilities and enriching lives throughout our community. For more information regarding the Arc Herkimer, visit the website: www.archerkimer.org or call (315) 574-7000.
