Arc Herkimer Artists to Host Holiday Pottery Sale

Pottery artists supported by Arc Herkimer will be sharing their talents just in time for holiday gift giving at a Pottery Sale on Thurs., December 14 and Fri., December 15 at 350 S. Washington Street in Herkimer, NY.

A variety of pottery pieces, including mugs, soap dishes, sponge holders, cell phone holders, Christmas ornaments, among other items will be available for sale to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Proceeds will fund future classes and supplies. The artists have taken pottery classes throughout the year with a professional artist, and they have created beautiful, well-crafted pieces.

According to Jackie Lawson, Day Habilitation lead, "Staff and supporters look forward to this holiday sale each year. The pottery produced is very meaningful, the individuals we support work very hard on each piece, and sales support individuals with disabilities. Our pieces ultimately are given as gifts to family and friends throughout the country."

Arc Herkimer's mission is empowering people with disabilities and enriching lives throughout our community. To learn more about Arc Herkimer, visit www.archerkimer.org. Questions about the sale, please call Lawson at (315) 574-7791.
